MDIS Privacy Policy

MDIS recognizes the importance of confidentiality in the use of information provided by our clients. Information such as birthdates, social security numbers, medical, and financial is necessary to properly and accurately provide our clients with the products and services they desire. We take the responsibility of protecting your personal, nonpublic information seriously. This protection is required by federal laws such as the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, HIPAA, and others, as well as various state laws contained in Missouri Statutes and Rules. MDIS has developed an Information Security Program that contains our procedures for safeguarding nonpublic customer information.
